

Guess who got a Birthday message from The Queen...

the glass house 200th episode

Wednesday July 26 at 9.35pm

On Wednesday, July 26th, thanks to a strict regime of botox, liposuction & pharmaceuticals only available in Paraguay, The Glass House celebrates its 200th birthday.

It's times like this when we take a moment to remember just how much we've enriched the life of this great country. And lets face it, it only takes a moment.

Anyway, Wil, Corinne & Dave will party long into the night with a veritable "Who's That?" of Australian entertainment, including "I know her from somewhere", "Hey, it's that guy", "Oh look, whatshername" & "Who's that?"

So join us to remember 200 superbly inconsistent shows, then laugh all over again as security makes us leave the building & Eddie McGuire refuses to take our calls.

July 26, 9.35pm, The Glass House turns 200! - It's a milestone around the neck of the ABC!
