Adam Hills Live on DVD

The Debut Stand Up DVD from the star of ABC TV's "Spicks & Specks"

When Adam Hills isn't hosting ABC TV's "Spicks & Specks" he travels the world as one of its most popular and respected stand up comics. A regular at the Melbourne, Montreal and Kilkenny Comedy Festivals and a triple Perrier Award nominee at the Edinburgh Festival, Adam Hills is truly a world class comedian.

"Live In The Suburbs" is Adam's first ever stand up comedy DVD, recorded live at the Cardinia Cultural Centre, in the outer Melbourne suburb of Pakenham. "Live In The Suburbs" delivers an hour and a bit of Adam's best stand up material as well as a trip to the farmer's market and a catch up with the locals at Pakenham Upper.

Hills said "I've been a stand up comic since 1989, but this is my first DVD."

"When they asked me where I wanted to record my first ever live DVD, I said 'Paris'. They said 'We can't afford Paris' so I said 'Pakenham!'"

Adam's debut DVD release includes:

- Full Length Stand Up Show Recorded in May 2006 at the Cardinia Cultural Centre in Pakenham.
- Pakenham Upper Is there more to this semi rural hamlet than a bad pun? Adam investigates.
- The Farmers Market The morning after the show we travel to this hotbed of intrigue, romance and produce. Warning: contains graphic images of hip replacements and organic mushrooms.
- Adam's Worst Gig Ever Fellow comedian Peter Helliar talks to Adam about Adam's worst gig ever.

"There will never be an hour of your life that will go as fast as the one you let Adam Hills turn into a party. If you cannot enjoy Adam Hills you cannot have a pulse." The Scotsman, Edinburgh

"He should be nominated for Australian ambassador. In fact, I'll go one further: Hills for PM" The Age, Melbourne

Adam Hills Live In The Suburbs is available on DVD for SRP $29.95 from ABC Shops, ABC Centres, ABC Online www.abcshop.com.au and leading video retailers.
